

CLINICAL SUPERVISION

Past, Present & Beyond

The Skagit Valley College Center for Non-Profit Excellence is offering a 30-hour

SUPERVISORY TRAINING
Workshop for
Chemical Dependency Professionals,
Certified Counselors
and Mental Health Professionals.

This training is designed for those who are supervising or interested in becoming a clinical supervisor.

Professional training hours will be awarded upon successful completion of the 30-hour comprehensive workshop.

Skagit Valley College
Nelson Hall Room 123

Thursdays - 6-9:00 p.m.
March 31 through June 2

$299 plus cost of text
($50 through SVC)

For more information, call
Bob Malphrus 360.428.7835.

To register, call
360.416.7638.

The Trainer

Rose Ness has worked in the addictions field for over 15 years, starting out in youth residential treatment at the Ryther Child Center in Seattle, Washington.

After earning her CDP, Rose obtained a Master of Arts degree in Systems Counseling from the Leadership Institute of Seattle in 2001.

Her range of experiences includes working in Correctional Mental Health, PPW, Outpatient Substance Abuse Treatment, and as an Interventionist in the public school systems.

Currently she holds the position of Clinical Manager at Pioneer Center North, a long-term residential treatment program for Involuntarily Committed Chemically Dependent adults. Rose has maintained a private practice since 2004.

For more information:

Bob Malphrus, SVC Human Services Program Co-chair

~ (360) 416-7704

~ Bob.malphrus@skagit.edu