INTERNATIONAL WEEK
MARCH 9-13, 2009 / SKAGIT VALLEY COLLEGE

Going Global, Making A Difference

Learn what individuals are doing to make a difference globally through relief, development and advocacy work around the globe with disadvantaged populations, and how those of us who would like to join in these efforts can get involved.

Monday
- Student Ceramics Sale Fundraiser for Potters for Peace
- 12:2 pm Opening Ceremony, Panel & Reception—Speaker: Eileen Conoboy, Peace Corps
- 6 pm “Understanding Islam”—Speaker: Hamza Chaudhry, Campus Center Multi-Purpose Room

Tuesday
- 10-2 pm Global Service Fair
- 7 pm “A World of Possibilities: Breakdown to Breakthrough” Speaker: Jim Bergquist, McIntyre Hall

Wednesday
- 12:30-1:30 pm Global Travel Opportunities with SVC
- 5-7:30 pm “Loteria” — Mexican Bingo, $10 admission, $5 for students w/ID

Thursday
- 12:30-1:30 pm Global Health Care Panel
- 7:30 pm “From Sea to Shining Sea— Music from Africa to Asia”, The SVC Chorale, McIntyre Hall
  *($15 gen., $10 seniors and students)

Friday
- 5:00 - 7:30 p.m. INTERNATIONAL DINNER at McIntyre Hall
  Social Hour 5:00 pm, Dinner 5:45 pm
  Keynote Speaker: Wanambisi E. Wesavkania ($25 Gen / $15 SVC Student)
  *Tickets: $40, $30, $27

Throughout the week in the Campus Center
- International Students sharing their culture, food and musical performances
- International menu at Cardinal Café
- International Films
- International Book Display at Library

*Tickets for events at McIntyre Hall: www.mcintyrehall.org or call box office at 360.416.7727, ext 2
All other events, contact: Ted Maloney, 360.416.7774, or visit www.skagit.edu/internationalweek.
All events at the Mount Vernon Campus and McIntyre Hall: 2405 East College Way, Mount Vernon.

Skagit Valley College provides a drug-free environment and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, disability, sexual orientation, or age in its programs and employment.