

Skagit Valley College

Disability Support Services

Some of the Equipment used in Providing Academic Accommodations

DEAF/HARD OF HEARING		Portable Public Address System (wireless microphone)
		Phonic Ear™ wireless FM transmitter and receiver, Ultratec™ TTY telephone for the deaf
MOBILITY IMPAIRMENTS		Cervical support, ergonomic task, and kneeling chairs
		Adjustable height worktables, stand/sit workstations, desktop lecterns (for writing while standing)
		Ergonomic keyboards, Intellikeys™ keyboard (with a variety of inserts), ergonomic pointing devices
		Stryker™ Evacuation chair (used to move wheelchair users safely down staircases)
LEARNING DISABILITY		WYNN™, TextHelp™, reading software. Dragon Naturally Speaking voice recognition software. (Also used by students with mobility impairments)
		Duplexing scanner with automatic document feeder, Omnipage Pro 14™ OCR software (Used in tandem to produce textbooks in screenreader-friendly format)
		4-track cassetter recorder/player, CD players for Daisy and MP3 format recorded texts
BLIND/LOW VISION		21" computer monitor, Clarity Classmate™ closed-circuit TV, Aladdin Elite™ closed circuit TV—both used to enlarge printed material
		ZoomText™, MAGIC™ screen magnifying software applications
		Jaws for Windows™ screen reading software, external voice synthesizer, Kurzweil Reading Edge™
		Mayer™ note taking books featuring NCR™ paper, (many disabilities) laptop computer for electronic in-class notetaking