INTEGRATIVE LEARNING

Integrative learning experiences include Learning Communities (LCs) and Integrative Experiences (IEs). An LC is the integrated combination of two or more courses from different areas of inquiry (e.g. sociology and literature, or physics and math, or speech and economics, or composition and philosophy). IEs are curricular (course) or co-curricular experiences designed by faculty in which students demonstrate their ability to integrate information, concepts, analytical frameworks, and/or skills from two or more areas of inquiry in a purposeful project or experience. (See also Learning Into Action for information about how some LIA projects can be proposed as Integrative Experiences.) Students completing the transfer degrees must complete three Integrative Learning Experiences. Two must be Learning Communities (LCs); the third can be another LC or an Integrative Experience (IE).

INTEGRATIVE EXPERIENCES

Integrative Experience courses are seminar-style or other courses designed to integrate information, concepts, analytical frameworks, and/or skills from two or more areas of inquiry in the context of a single course. The Integrative Experiences (IEs) available for Fall Quarter are:

LEARNING COMMUNITIES

Learning Communities are two or more courses joined by a single theme and taught through lectures, group activities and seminars. Student groups learn by sharing questions and ideas, working on projects and developing study groups. Students seeking the AAUCT or AS degree must complete three integrative experiences. At least two of these must be Learning Communities. The Learning Communities available for Fall Quarter are:

LEARNING INTO ACTION
HELPING STUDENTS APPLY SKILLS OUTSIDE OF THE CLASSROOM.
LIA allows students to design projects outside the classroom which demonstrate skills and knowledge acquired in college course work. Students who have approximately 45 transferable credits are eligible to complete a Learning Into Action (LIA project). All LIA projects must demonstrate the student’s acquired knowledge and skills. Some examples include: Cooperative Education, original research, study abroad, community service, campus related activities, developing exhibits, lab work, or clinical experience. NOTE that an LIA project that demonstrates integration of more than one discipline can be proposed, by the student’s faculty sponsor, as an Integrated Experience (LIA/IE). One of the three Integrative Learning Experiences required for your degree can be met with an Integrative Experience. For more information or to make an appointment, contact the Counseling Department at 360.416.7654.

INTEGRATIVE LEARNING
Integrative learning experiences include Learning Communities (LCs) and Integrative Experiences (IEs). An LC is the integrated combination of two or more courses from different areas of inquiry (e.g. sociology and literature, or physics and math, or speech and economics, or composition and philosophy). IEs are curricular (course) or co-curricular experiences designed by faculty in which students demonstrate their ability to integrate information, concepts, analytical frameworks, and/or skills from two or more areas of inquiry in a purposeful project or experience. (See also Learning Into Action for information about how some LIA projects can be proposed as Integrative Experiences.)

Students completing the transfer degrees must complete three Integrative Learning Experiences. Two must be Learning Communities (LCs); the third can be another LC or an Integrative Experience (IE).

INTEGRATIVE EXPERIENCES
Integrative Experience courses are seminar-style or other courses designed to integrate information, concepts, analytical frameworks, and/or skills from two or more areas of inquiry in the context of a single course. The Integrative Experiences (IEs) available for Winter Quarter are:

ART 160  Portfolio Seminar
Prerequisite: Three studio courses plus 5 additional arts credits or permission of the instructor.
DAY
0297 ART 160I A (1) 11:30AM-12:20PM W H211 IVERSON

This course is an Integrative Experience. One of the three Integrative Learning Experiences required for a degree can be met with an Integrative Experience.

LEARNING COMMUNITIES
Learning Communities are two or more courses joined by a single theme and taught through lectures, group activities and seminars. Student groups learn by sharing questions and ideas, working on projects and developing study groups. Students seeking the AAUCT or AS degree must complete three integrative learning experiences. At least two of these must be Learning Communities. The Learning Communities available for Winter Quarter are:

LEARNING INTO ACTION

HELPING STUDENTS APPLY SKILLS OUTSIDE OF THE CLASSROOM. LIA allows students to design projects outside the classroom which demonstrate skills and knowledge acquired in college course work. Students who have approximately 45 transferable credits are eligible to complete a Learning Into Action (LIA) project. All LIA projects must demonstrate the student’s acquired knowledge and skills. Some examples include: Cooperative Education, original research, study abroad, community service, campus related activities, developing exhibits, lab work, or clinical experience. NOTE that an LIA project that demonstrates integration of more than one discipline can be proposed, by the student’s faculty sponsor, as an Integrated Experience (LIA/IE). One of the three Integrative Learning Experiences required for your degree can be met with an Integrative Experience. For more information or to make an appointment, contact the Counseling Department at 360.416.7654.

INTEGRATIVE LEARNING

Integrative learning experiences include Learning Communities (LCs) and Integrative Experiences (IEs). An LC is the integrated combination of two or more courses from different areas of inquiry (e.g. sociology and literature, or physics and math, or speech and economics, or composition and philosophy). IEs are curricular (course) or co-curricular experiences designed by faculty in which students demonstrate their ability to integrate information, concepts, analytical frameworks, and/or skills from two or more areas of inquiry in a purposeful project or experience. (See also Learning Into Action for information about how some LIA projects can be proposed as Integrative Experiences.)

Students completing the transfer degrees must complete three Integrative Learning Experiences. Two must be Learning Communities (LCs); the third can be another LC or an Integrative Experience (IE).

INTEGRATIVE EXPERIENCES

Integrative Experience courses are seminar-style or other courses designed to integrate information, concepts, analytical frameworks, and/or skills from two or more areas of inquiry in the context of a single course. The Integrative Experiences (IEs) available for Spring Quarter are:

CMST 152 Seminar: A Woman’s World

DAY

0752 CMST 152I A (2) 11:30AM-01:20PM F H024 SMITH L

LEARNING COMMUNITIES

Learning Communities are two or more courses joined by a single theme and taught through lectures, group activities and seminars. Student groups learn by sharing questions and ideas, working on projects and developing study groups. Students seeking the AA/AS degree must complete three integrative experiences. At least two of these must be Learning Communities. The Learning Communities available for Spring Quarter are:

LEARNING INTO ACTION
HELPING STUDENTS APPLY SKILLS OUTSIDE OF THE CLASSROOM. LIA allows students to design projects outside the classroom which demonstrate skills and knowledge acquired in college course work. Students who have approximately 45 transferable credits are eligible to complete a Learning Into Action (LIA project). All LIA projects must demonstrate the student’s acquired knowledge and skills. Some examples include: Cooperative Education, original research, study abroad, community service, campus related activities, developing exhibits, lab work, or clinical experience. NOTE that an LIA project that demonstrates integration of more than one discipline can be proposed, by the student’s faculty sponsor, as an Integrated Experience (LIA/IE). One of the three Integrative Learning Experiences required for your degree can be met with an Integrative Experience. For more information or to make an appointment, contact the Counseling Department at 360.416.7654.
