To certify a major in communication, a student must have earned at least 68-135 quarter credits and meet the following requirements:
- 2.7 GPA in WSU communication courses;
- 2.5 overall cum GPA
- "C" average or better in SVC’s Speech 121, Media Communications 235 and several course requirements not available at SVC (courses are averaged if a C- is earned in any course).

Students may enroll concurrently in remaining pre-communication requirements at WSU before being accepted into the major.

After admission, pre-professional core course sequences are required at WSU in one of the following:
- Advertising
- Journalism
- Broadcast Management
- Public Relations
- Broadcast News
- Speech Communication
- Broadcast Production
- General Communication

Please consult the Washington State University catalog to incorporate specific academic major requirements into the AAUCT.

PLEASE NOTE: Students are responsible for finding out the unique requirements of the college or university they plan to attend. This listing is intended only to be a guide in assisting students with their course selection.
