Calling All Colors

Advisor
As always Calling All Colors has proven to be the most active club on campus! Over 100 of you shared in the activities this year with representatives from Belize, Canada, Egypt, Eritrea, Ethiopia, Germany, Guatemala, Honduras, Hong Kong, Italy, Mexico, Norway, Philippines, Sweden, Taiwan, Thailand, USA and Viet Nam. Twenty-five of you accepted leadership positions and helped make a difference in our community. You assisted with Champions of Diversity, Christmas Fund, ESL Registration, Farmworkers’ Solidarity March, Field Day, Gear Up, Halloween Party, Boys and Girls Club Harvest Festival, Immigration Reform March, Kulshan Creek Outdoor Adventures, Latino Fest, Latino Education Conference, LaVenture Multicultural Night, Loteria, Parent Advisory Committee Meetings, Reward Trips, Salsa Contest and the annual Valentine’s Dance. You donated to Champions of Diversity Scholarships, Farmworkers’ Solidarity March, Haitian Relief, KSVR Scholarship Fund Drive and the MLK Celebration.

You achieved honors, awards and scholarships this year! Betty Jo Anzaldua was selected to visit India as part of a Rotary Exchange program. Glenda Mendoza won the Woman of Opportunity Award from Soroptimist. Nayelli Villanueva won 3rd place in the campus photo contest. Pedro Gonzalez’s salsa won the “Spiciest.” Scholarships from Calling All Colors, Champions of Diversity, Gear Up, KSVR, Koetje Family, SVC Foundation and WWU were won by Betty Jo Anzaldua, Nallely Carreon, Estefanie Carrillo, Susie Danielson, Manuel Delgado, Mayra Delgado, José De Los Ríos, Manuel Gomez, Sergio Gomez, Gloria Lemus, Cassandra Lopez, Sara Manrique, Christina McCabe, Ana Mendez, Glenda Mendoza, Maria Meza, Tomas Mulugeta, Omar Navarro, Lupita Partida, Isabel Sanchez, Perla Santillan, Evaristo Solano, Wanlapha Thanngtrakul, Nayelli Villanueva and Monica Villarreal.

Many of you attended leadership events including the Ethnic Student Retreat on Whidbey Island, the SWAN Banquet, Women of Color Empowerment Dinner at Western Washington University and the Students of Color Conference in Yakima. You bonded together as a unified team and made decisions based on consensus.

I am proud of each and every one of you! I am excited to hear about your futures—those of you who are graduating and looking forward to seeing the rest of you here on Tuesday, September 21st for our first Calling All Colors Club meeting of Fall Quarter. See you then in Lewis Hall 65 at 12:30!

What Have You Learned from Calling All Colors?

- That everyone should be able to express themselves in their own way.
- Each culture is different, but they are all fun if you learn about them.
- I have learned to speak in public a bit better.
- I have learned to embrace different cultures at my school and to appreciate the blessing of diversity in my own hometown.
- I have learned how to work with others. What volunteering is and why we do it.
- This club has showed me a lot because I am always active trying to help others and learn from other cultures.
- I learned about scholarships and organizations that help students succeed in college.
- I learned that people from all countries are welcome to the club.
- Never think you know someone before you get to know them.
- I have learned that we are all the same, doesn’t matter where you are from. We are all getting an education and building connections.
- It is better to step up and say something rather than be silent.
- How not to be intimidated by large groups of people.
- Not only to be accepting of all colors but all ages and people too.
- That everyone is human so treat everyone the same.
- How to appreciate and understand other cultures.
- That it is as important to give as to receive.
- Never give up.
- Learned more about Cesar Chavez.
- I learned how to help our community.
- I have learned to cooperate and work as a team with others, also how to become committed to things.
- Boost confidence.
- Be open minded, get to know someone before judging.
Why Should Others Join the Calling All Colors Club?

- It gives you an opportunity to be active in school and you get to meet new people and make friends. It makes your experience here at SVC fun and exciting.
- You give back to the community
- You gain volunteer experience
- You gain new perspectives.
- It opens your mind to people outside your own comfortable circle and allows you to appreciate the cultures we all come from.
- Groups and clubs look good on your transcript.
- You can learn how to work with others.
- It’s a great place to meet new people and also meet people from different diversities like my self.
- Lots of scholarship opportunities.
- The friends that people make here is for a life time.
- The club is fun and there is always a volunteer opportunity and a smile.
- It’s a great group and mix of people; a lot of opportunities to volunteer and try new things.
- It will widen your perspective on other cultures.
- It is a great club where you can learn about other cultures. It is fun.
- Have fun and learn how to work with people.
- Because it’s a great place to meet new people; also help out in your community and a chance to be a part of a club at school
- Do something on campus instead of hanging around campus just studying all day long.
What is Your Best Memory From the Year?

- Women of Color Empowerment conference
- Loteria was a great event
- Some funny moments happen at the meetings
- The Students of Color Conference. I had a lot of fun, met new people and learned new things
- Being able to spend more time with my friends
- Farm worker “La Causa ” presentation
- Going ice skating
- The march for the farmer workers was a great experience
- The Valentines Dance
- The presentations and speakers that I was able to experience because of Calling All Colors left a powerful impact and always made me think beyond myself.
- Every event is unforgettable.

Comments To the Club Members?

- Thank you for making this school year and club so fun, wish you the best for the ones graduating and the ones coming back.
- You are nice; we should have more activities to play together.
- Make the best out of your college experience and join, that ’s what I did!!!
- Go to the events and be open about it.
- Great opportunity to learn about many cultures.
- If you want to make friends, this is a great way.
