DROP IN STUDENT ENROLLMENT INFORMATION

Many courses at Skagit Valley College require prerequisite(s) or placement. If you are interested in taking a course that has a prerequisite or placement requirement you will need to submit a previous college transcript or placement exam showing that you have met the requirement with your registration form.

Tuition and fees: See the Academic Calendar for quarterly tuition due dates. If you register on or after a quarterly tuition due date, you must pay upon registration. You will not receive a bill in the mail. Keep track of your place on any waitlists. Your fees are due immediately upon automatic enrollment from the waitlist.

Drop-In students are not eligible to receive federal financial aid as non-degree seeking students. In addition, an evaluation of transfer credit will not be completed until the student applies and is admitted as a degree-seeking student. Any credits earned as a non-degree seeking student may be applied toward a degree at a later date, but will not be retroactively eligible for financial aid.

Do you have a physical or mental impairment which substantially limits one or more major life activities, such as seeing, hearing, speaking, walking, learning, working, etc?

Yes No

Persons with a disability may be eligible for support services and should call the Disability Access Services Office.
