Disclaimer

Continuing and Community Education courses are not eligible for college credit. Participants must register and pay in full for these courses, prior to the first day of class. A student will receive a 100% refund if the college cancels the class or if the student officially withdraws 2 business days prior to the first class meeting. No refund will be given thereafter. Material fees will not be refunded. Exceptions must be approved by the Continuing and Community Education Director.

The Continuing and Community Education program is self-sustaining and not eligible for waivers.
