PARK RANGER LAW ENFORCEMENT ACADEMY

Thank you for your interest in one of America's premier law enforcement training academies geared for success in national resource-based law enforcement occupations. Do you desire a career in which you can apply your learning to contribute to the vitality of your community? Make a correct career choice today – select the Skagit Valley College (SVC) Park Ranger Law Enforcement Academy (PRLEA) and be counted among the next academy's graduates to serve your parks and resource systems with honor and distinction.

ABOUT THE ACADEMY

Established on the Mount Vernon, WA campus in 1990, the SVC PRLEA is one of six accredited academies nationwide that meets the Federal Law Enforcement Training Center's standards for commissioning of seasonal Park Rangers for Level II entry law enforcement roles for the National Park Service (NPS) and other federal agencies. In addition, the academy meets the entry-level law enforcement requirements for full-time Park Ranger positions with the Washington State Parks and Recreation Commission, as well as many other state, county, and city park agencies. Washington State's Criminal Justice Training Commission, also, recognizes the academy training as satisfying the requirement for Law Enforcement Reserve Officer status.

During the academy's first week, the SVC campus will come alive with uniformed Cadets. You will learn from subject matter experts, in their specifications, as well as meeting and training with recognized professionals in their fields. Over a period of 17 weeks, your classroom and performance-based training will take you to firearms and simulation training, a multi-skill driving course to learn emergency vehicle operations, along with fitness and defensive tactics training facilities. Your training will culminate with scenario-based field exercises. Here you will put all of your classroom hours and preparatory skills training to work in problem solving during mock law enforcement scenarios.

Students are welcome to gain optional additional training in Wildland Firefighting and Emergency Medical Response courses. These classes will add additional qualifications for Cadets when applying for competitive employment opportunities. Tuition is paid separately for these courses and they are held outside of the PRLEA training schedule. Agencies are increasingly looking for EMR or EMT certification from applicants. It is in your best interest to begin EMR or EMT training prior to academy, if applicable.

ACADEMY OPERATIONS

The academy is a comprehensive 750+ hour program over 17 weeks. Cadets attend Monday through Friday from 0800 to 1700 (8:00am to 5:00pm). In addition, some evenings and weekend training is required. The academy's capacity is 30 Cadets. To apply for the academy, please visit our website link above, complete the application packet forms and submit for approval. Acceptance to the academy is based on review and approval of all completed application documents by the Commander.

Washington State resident tuition and fees for the total academy (2022-2023 academic year) will be approximately $5700.00. Out of state attendee's tuition and fees for the total academy (2022-2023) academic year will be approximately $8000.00. These amounts may not include all taxes and fees and are ONLY AN ESTIMATION. Academy tuition is paid over two separate quarterly payments. Tuition and fees are adjusted annually on July 01. Tuition is determined through a process where the Washington State Legislature assists the college's Board of Trustees in establishing tuition costs and fees.

The above ESTIMATES include:

- Tuition for 30 quarter credits upon successful completion of the academy
- All textbooks and handouts
- Program fee of $1750.00
- Training consumable items (ammo, targets, fuel, etc...)

The academy tuition and fees do not cover room and board or transportation. Uniform items cost approximately $350.00 in addition to tuition.

The academy is covered by a variety of financial aid opportunities. Please contact SVC Financial Aid to request assistance at <https://www.skagit.edu/financial-aid/>. If you qualify for the GI Bill, please contact the SVC Veterans Education department at <https://www.skagit.edu/veterans-outreach/>. Also, SVC offers on-site housing. In addition, the academy has a housing list of local landlords that rent only to academy cadets.
